Over the years, the FCJ Refugee Centre has become a leading expert on issues that affect the immigration and settlement sector.

FCJ Refugee Centre's Popular Education Program addresses the current need for training opportunities for various sectors but not limited to settlement organizations, community groups, students, government institutions, etc.

IMMIGRATION CLINIC

Migrant Protection Clinics

Who will benefit from this program

- ♣ Precarious migrant populations who need extra support with their various immigration processes.
- ♣ Front-line service providers across Ontario, as they will be coached in unfamiliar immigration processes, and be better equipped to meet the varying needs of their communities.

What the FCJ Refugee Centre provides during the IMMIGRATION CLINIC

Staff from FCJ Refugee Centre go to the agency who is organizing the Migrant Protection Clinic. During the visit FCJ Refugee Centre staff will provide orientation and immigration support to clients attending the clinic.

What is a Migrant Protection Clinic

The MPC is a new program that allows FCJ Refugee Centre to implement migration and support clinics at various locations across the GTA and Ontario to offset the barriers, better equip a wide range of service providers and increase access to justice to a wide base of precarious migrant populations.

Thanks to the Law Foundation of Ontario, FCJ Refugee Centre's staff is able to work directly with staff at partner organizations to schedule appointments, complete intakes and work on various applications associated with different migration processes.
