

How to request a training

Identify topics that your agency/community needs. If there are additional topics that are not included in this list which are of interest to your organization arrangements can be made.

To schedule a workshop contact Carolina Teves: cteves@fcjrefugeecentre.org

If the workshop is outside of Toronto, the agency/community will provide billet for the FCJ refugee Centre facilitator and transportation.

Benefits

- ♣ Access to crucial up to date training materials and educational resources
- ♣ Improve and enhance the services that newcomers receive
- ♣ Increase access to legal education on important legislative, policy, and legal issues
- ♣ Reach service providers where there is limited access to legal education and educational resources.

Who will benefit from this program

Community centers, settlement organizations, employment organizations, uprooted people/communities, drop-in centers, ethno-specific organizations, shelters, ELL, schools, libraries, umbrella organizations, youth and women organizations, Life skills groups, etc.

What the FCJ Refugee Centre provides for each workshop

- ♣ The facilitators for each workshop
- ♣ Resource material including PPP

Over the years, the FCJ Refugee Centre has become a leading expert on issues that affect the settlement sector.

FCJ Refugee Centre's Popular Education Program addresses the current need for training opportunities for various sectors but no limited to settlement organizations, community groups, students, government institutions, etc.

A lot of the work that FCJ Refugee Centre does relies on donations from individuals, religious institutions, foundations, etc. Any support you can provide for our services is welcome.
