

FCJ Refugee Centre
Walking with Uprooted People

/FCJRefugeeCentre

@FCJRefugeeCentre

www.fcjrefugeecentre.org

WORKSHOPS

OBJECTIVES:

- Address the multiple settlement needs of vulnerable newcomer populations experiencing multiple barriers.*
- Equip vulnerable newcomers with the information and tools necessary to successfully navigate legal and immigration processes.*

TOPICS

- Immigration changes: impact on vulnerable migrants
- New immigration system from gender perspective
- Is Humanitarian and Compassionate application an option?
- Violence against women
- New rules putting parents and grandparents sponsorship out of reach

- Non-status migrants: vulnerabilities and services
- How to identify survivors of human trafficking and how to support them
- Vulnerable newcomers: barriers and service model
- Implications of the refugee hearing, how to be ready and what is going to happen after
- Non-status precarious migrants youth
- Homophobia and the immigration system
- Etc.

To schedule a workshop contact
Carolina Teves: cteves@fcjrefugeecentre.org

BENEFITS

1. Access to crucial training materials and educational resources
2. Improve the knowledge of service providers on effective service delivery practices that meet the needs of vulnerable newcomer populations
3. Increase the capacity of service providers and other stakeholders to work with and appropriately refer vulnerable newcomers