For the past 25 years the FCJ Refugee Centre has been championing the rights and protection of immigrants and refugees, with a particular penchant for those individuals with some form of precarious immigration status, or without any status at all. The Centre is located in the west end of Toronto and provides transitional housing for up to 40 women and children annually. Beyond lodging, the Centre offers an integrated approach to settlement that includes legal support, counselling, orientation, peer-mentoring initiatives as well as an array of community programming, and serves over 3,500 refugees annually.

Many refugee populations increasingly call on the FCJ Refugee Centre for help and it is well positioned to respond quickly and efficiently with your financial help.

Currently, we have identified three emerging needs that deserve attention:

- Precarious Migrant Project
- Non-status Youth
- Victims/Survivors of Human Trafficking

For more information about these programs and any other activities of the FCJ Refugee Centre go to: www.fcjrefugeecentre.org
