

FCJ Refugee Centre
Walking with Uprooted People

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Anti-Human Trafficking Youth Worker

The Youth Worker will support in the development and implementation of the Youth Alliance against Human Trafficking, a program which provides holistic support to young people from conditions of human trafficking, labour exploitation and sex trafficking. The project also established preventative measures by providing comprehensive access to information to equip vulnerable young people with the information they need to make informed decisions, mitigate the risks that they face, and advocate for their rights.

Responsibilities:

- Develop and implement the Youth Alliance against Human Trafficking program, providing appropriate personal care, emotional support and access to information to vulnerable young precarious migrants, at-risk youth and human trafficking survivors.
- Facilitate and develop youth-focused events including recreational activities, socials, workshops, projects and weekly meetings.
- Provide individualized support, information and guidance on labour rights, migrant rights, and youth rights, as they relate to exploited youth, at-risk youth, and youth survivors of human trafficking.
- Conduct community outreach to partner organizations, youth service providers, schools, shelters and other spaces which youth are present about the Youth Alliance program.
- Contribute to creating awareness and building capacity through participating in meetings, webinars, or trainings for stake holder organizations and partners, informing on possible different types of human trafficking affecting youth, following FCJ emphasis in international cases and labour trafficking.
- Collaborate with Anti-Human Human Trafficking Youth worker in writing program tool-kits, reports (including program/service evaluations), and collaborate in the creation of advocacy letters, pamphlets, posters and other promotional material which contribute to advocacy work.
- Organize projects which bring awareness to human trafficking as a youth issue (films, podcasts, campaigns, letters...etc.) and facilitate connections between the youth alliance and other youth programming and organizations which serve the youth community.
- Adhere to organizational policies, including confidentiality, reporting and anti-oppression.

FCJ Refugee Centre
Walking with Uprooted People

Qualifications:

- Experience in working with newcomer youth (immigrant, refugee, or non-status), and providing individual and group supports in youth.
- Lived experience with human trafficking, and/or immigration is an asset
- Strong youth engagement skills for program development and delivery.
- Experience working from a resiliency, intersectional and anti-oppression based framework.
- Adept in public speaking with experience in facilitating workshops, meetings and information sessions.
- Proficiency with use of computers and Microsoft Office 365
- Knowledge in media production such as podcasts, videos and technological expertise in Zoom, Go To Meeting and social media, considered an asset
- Second language an asset

About the position:

- 30 hours a week.
- $20 an hour

As an organization who values diversity in its workforce, we encourage candidates to self-identify as members of the following designated groups: women, visible minority, aboriginal peoples, LGBTQ2S+, newcomers.

Interested applicants are invited to submit a cover letter and résumé by mail or email (in word format) by Friday February 12 by 5:00 pm to:

Loly Rico
FCJ Refugee Centre
208 Oakwood Avenue
Toronto, ON M6E 2V4
Email: lolyrico@fcjrefugeecentre.org

We thank all applicants; however, due to the volume of applicants, only candidates who are selected for an interview will be contacted.

To learn more about FCJ Refugee Centre please visit our website at: www.fcjrefugeecentre.org.